

The Ed. Foundation presents

Parenting in a Digital Age with Carrie & Dave Kerpen

- Do you worry about what your kid is doing online?
- Do you have a young child, and you're dreading the day that they start using a mobile device?
- Are you concerned about protecting the privacy of your kids?
- Are you unsure about how to talk to your kids about all of this?

TUESDAY, MARCH 28TH
LANDMARK ON MAIN STREET
PORT WASHINGTON, NY

DOORS OPEN AT 9:15 AM

PRESENTATION BEGINS PROMPTLY AT 10:00 AM

Tickets:

- $20 for The Ed. Foundation members
- $25 for non-members
- To purchase tickets or become a member, please visit www.TheEdFoundation.org or contact Paula Whitman at info@TheEdFoundation.org

Dave and Carrie Kerpen, renowned experts on social media and its impact on families, take you through the ins and outs of "parenting in a digital age." You'll receive actionable tips on privacy settings, digital family contracts, and how to engage with your kids in a way that makes them feel empowered and safe.

Dave Kerpen's books will be available for purchase at the event from Dolphin Bookshop.

The venue is donated by Landmark on Main Street.

