RABBI LEE

Dear Friends,

I look forward to Rosh HaShana and Yom Kippur still inspired by the joy of June's Gala. The celebration proved once again that we are a congregation that both prays well and plays well. We not only bring ourselves fully to holiday observances, to study, to life cycle events, and to performing mitzvot, but we know how to have a good time, too. Though I served as the focus of the evening, seen through my eyes, the evening was all about you – those who planned the event, those who were in attendance, those who contributed to the tribute book (which I read over and over again), those who sent notes, baked, phoned, and those who support this great enterprise of the Reconstructionist Synagogue of the North Shore by contributing time and/or money.

I summed up my feelings about you all and about the last thirty-four of the forty years of my rabbinate here at RSNS as follows: "I dreamed a dream once that has become my reality, a reality that is far richer and deeper and broader and more fulfilling and more wondrous than I could have ever imagined, and it's all because of you, because you let me in to be with you in your midst. Founders present and remembered, builders here and missed, Willow Streeters, Plandomers, treasured colleagues, synagogue personnel, teachers, and students, thank you all. Thank you, thank you for this Promised Land of ours, for the past many years, and for the decade to come."

I look forward to living that dream with you once again when we gather for the Holidays a fortnight from now.

Wishing you all a healthy, prosperous and good New Year.
I am, as always, warmly,

Lee

S'lihot

Dear Friends,

In anticipation of the beginning of the Jewish New Year, we will gather on Saturday, September 5 at 9:30 p.m. for half an hour of "getting to know you," "renewing acquaintances," and "catching up." It will be an opportunity for new members and members of long standing to meet one another.

This "social" time will be followed by an hour-long S'lihot service, which will begin at 10:00 p.m. S'lihot is the 'warm-up' for Rosh HaShana and Yom Kippur. The service includes highlights from the High Holiday liturgy including the melodies that inspire the season.

Sincerely,
Eileen Rosendahl, Ritual Committee Chairperson

ASHOKAN TRIP Friday thru Sunday, February 5 – 7, for students in grades 3 thru 6.

Welcome back!

Our summer program enjoyed wonderful weather this year. The children had a terrific time enjoying the outdoor classroom, our playgrounds, the sprinkler and the water slide. They participated in a variety of summer activities. Our Summer Toddler Class helped our newest students acclimate to the fun of being in nursery school.

Parent Orientation will take place on Tuesday, September 1st at 8:00 p.m. and classes will begin on September 8th. Our teachers have enjoyed the summer and they are looking forward to greeting students and their families.

The children will be making new friends and begin to feel comfortable in their classrooms and playgrounds. Each day the classes will be using playdough and small manipulatives, as well as working in the block area, the family center, and enjoying an art activity and story time. Each week we will celebrate Shabbat with candles, kiddush and challah. We are looking forward to many new activities as we celebrate Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur together.

Super Soccer Stars will continue to offer soccer for children 2-3 years old and their Kick and Play class for children 1-2 years old on Thursday morning beginning on October 1st.

Our own Yoga Jen will offer a Waddler Yoga and Me Class for children 1-2 years old and grownup, beginning Tuesday October 6th. Call the nursery school office for more information.

Join us on Rosh HaShana, September 14th at 2:00 p.m. for Apples on the Bima and our first PJ Library event.

Registration continues for our fall classes for 2's, 3's and 4's.

Don't delay - call the nursery school at 627-0257 to register your child.

The nursery school staff joins me in wishing all a Shana Tova

ADULT STUDIES AND SEMINARS

EAT, READ, TALK

Rabbi Lee will resume his Thursday afternoon programs in this series at 12:30 p.m. on Thursday, October 15th. He will again, present an article “ripped from the headlines” of Jewish relevance. Feel free to bring a dairy lunch and we’ll supply the hot drinks and the article to be discussed.

Rabbi Jodie Siff will resume her Thursday afternoon programs on Thursday, October 22nd at 12:30 p.m. The focus will be the study of Mishnah, the next sacred text written after the Hebrew Bible. You need no previous knowledge to attend her “lunch and learn.” Feel free to bring a dairy lunch and we’ll supply the hot drinks and the article to be discussed.

BIBLE STUDY

This group has been and continues to be committed to reading every word of the Hebrew Bible (in English translation). After more than a decade and a half, the group has reached the last third of the Bible. We will pick up the reading with the Book of Psalms, which will occupy us for most of the year. This seminar meets biweekly on Thursday nights from 8:00 to 9:30 p.m. We will begin again on Thursday, October 8th.

SHABBAT SEMINAR

The History of Israel: A Documentary Approach. We began our examination of Zionism seven years ago through the lens of the writings of Zionist and anti-Zionist ideologues. Last year we arrived at the end of the Six Day War and concluded with the Yom Kippur War. We will continue to critically review the development of the State through original political and sociological documents. This seminar meets biweekly on Shabbat afternoons from noon to 1:30 p.m. We will resume on Saturday, October 10th.

YIDDISH READING CIRCLE

We meet on average, every other week on a Friday morning at 10:00 a.m. in the RSNS Library. For more information and a schedule contact Jerry Bloom at 516-466-2519.

WOMEN’S ROSH HODESH GROUP

Traditional religious ritual was designed, and continues, to meet a variety of needs that relate to life passages: The need for the individual to be acknowledged by community, the need for the community/tribe to read itself into the passages of each member, the need for bonding, which serves both individual and community, the need to (re-)enact dramatically the great stories and messages of the tradition, for the sake of individuals and of the tradition. Through rituals, we create structures that provide an element of predictability and, therefore, safety, around times of insecurity, transition, and/or loss. All women of our congregation are welcome to join us as we continue to study, and learn from each other. We will resume on October 14 at 7:30 p.m.

MENS GROUP

The Men's Group meets the second Wednesday of each month to discuss topics of interest selected by members. While the discussion starts off with a selected topic the meetings move in many directions and are a wonderful way for members to get to know one another. All men in the congregation are invited to attend. The next meeting is on Wednesday, September 9th at 7:30 p.m. Coffee and some snacks will be available.

If you can't get angry at the real cause of your anger, to whom and how do you express it? What do you think women do under the same circumstances?

CONGREGATION WIDE PROGRAMS

For all ages!! All are welcome.

SHABBAT DINNER- FRIDAYS AT 6:30 p.m.

Adults $10 Children – free

October 16, November 20, January 22, and March 18
Dinner is dairy Italian. Gluten-free option only if requested in advance. Please RSVP to rsns@optonline.net or call the office.

SANDWICH MAKING – SUNDAYS AT 10 a.m.

Prepare bag lunches for client of the INN (Interfaith Nutrition Network).

October 18, December 6, January 10, February 28, March 13 and April 17

Community Corner

This new column is an outshoot of the Engaging with Aging meetings Carol Blumenthal has been running for the past year, which itself is an outgrowth of our community's CBCO efforts that Carol, Alice, Harriet and others spearheaded over the past several years. We found that so much valuable information and so many powerful personal stories bubbled up during the meetings that we needed a way to share what we've learned with the larger RSNS community. Over time, we hope that this column will grow into a place for members from every pocket of the RSNS community to share their stories.

Profile of Audrey Bernstein

by Rachel Mankowitz

We've been lucky to have Audrey, in person, at the Engaging with Aging meetings this past year. She has made these meetings into a place where people feel safe asking questions, sharing stories, and giving each other support. For everyone who has met her, she is no longer a stranger, she's a friend. That's what I hope this profile will do for the rest of the RSNS community.

Up until now, people may have found out about Audrey Bernstein by glancing at the Partners In Caring booklet on the shelf outside of the synagogue office or, more likely, by calling the office or the clergy and being sent to her for help. Audrey comes to us through the UJA Federation's Partners In Caring (PIC) program, which places social workers in Jewish congregations, in order to support what each synagogue is already doing to help their members. Audrey is our liaison social worker. She particularly enjoys working with RSNS where the open and intimate atmosphere of our congregation has brought out the best in her, her warmth and honesty have encouraged more of us to reach out to her.

Audrey is a phone call away if you are facing challenges in your life that need help sorting it through. She can offer resources, support, information and guidance, or just a friendly ear. Sometimes just talking through a problem, and getting your fears out into the open, is enough to put you back on solid ground. Together you can decide on a next step. If Audrey doesn't have the information you need to go forward, she will act as a conduit to someone else who can help, because her goal is to offer support that fits each individual; she won't just give you a booklet and send you on your way. She likes to give recommendations in clusters (list of potential doctors, therapists or senior living options) because everyone has slightly different needs. What feels right to her may not be right for someone else, so you have choices. She can also provide short term counseling, or help in the process of finding a long term therapist. The benefit of calling Audrey is privacy. The only one who's privy to these conversations, other than the two of you, is her 12 ½ year old Greyhound/Beagle mix, Nash, and he is the soul of discretion.

Audrey grew up in Reform Judaism with a strong bent towards volunteerism. As an adult, she joined her local Hadassah chapter for a chance to combine good works and connection with her community. She spent twenty years working in a hospital as a Medical Social Worker. She discovered that she has a talent for networking and being the glue between people, helping them to communicate more clearly and completely. And she loved that white lab jacket!

When Audrey started with PIC, eleven years ago, it was a part time position to accommodate the full time job of raising three boys, caretaking for her grandmother, and then both of her parents, through the final stages of their lives. She knows firsthand the difficulties life can offer, and has a lot of resources, to offer to others going through those same challenges.

Audrey loves to plan parties and make a beautiful tablescape. The food at the party will be delicious, because she is also very talented at ordering in. She has always liked learning new things and challenging herself, with new social work challenges, or Canasta classes depending on the moment.

Though she has an office at the JCC, Audrey will go wherever people need her, at bedside in the hospital, at the synagogue, in your favorite coffee shop, or at your home, wherever you are most comfortable. The best way to reach Audrey is to call her at her JCC office – (516) 484-1545 ext. 211. Her email address is abernstein@sjjcc.org, but an email will always lead to a conversation, on the phone or in person, so that she can know better what kind of help you need.

If you have a story you would like to share with the RSNS community, contact Rachel Mankowitz at rachelmank@earthlink.net.

ART SHOWS AT RSNS

So many RSNS members are involved with the arts. It's time to continue our ongoing art shows in the Social Hall. All works are for sale and 25% of the sale is a tax deductible contribution to the synagogue.

We schedule a few months in advance of a show and can accommodate paintings, photographs and another media that can be mounted on walls. Artists can be members, family and friends of members and/or those whose works contain Jewish themes. No nudes as we want all ages to be comfortable.

To chat about a show call or Email

WISE AGING

How can aging be a good thing?

Discover new resources to live your later years with spirit, resilience and wisdom.

Rabbi Rachel Cowan, former executive director of the Institute for Jewish Spirituality, founder and author of "Wise Aging," draws on a variety of sources to help us explore and enhance relationships, forgiveness, gratitude, loss, well-being and legacy.

Following this information session, you will have the opportunity to sign up for a 6-week Wise Aging workshop, led by a trained facilitator through the Institute for Jewish Spirituality. Share experiences and acquire skills for making changes in your life that will lead to a deeper sense of well-being.
