

Marking October 7th

During this time of extreme sadness and challenges we are blessed with community.

Please mark your calendars for the upcoming events to commemorate October 7th:

- Singing and prayer service of commemoration

Date: Monday, October 7th

Time: 7:00pm

Location: Community Synagogue in Port Washington - 160 Middle Neck Rd, Sands Point, 11050
Port Washington & Manhasset Synagogues will come together for an hour long singing and prayer service of commemoration.

- Simhat Torah At RSNS - 1001 Plandome Rd, Plandome, 11030

Date: Wednesday, October 23rd

Time: 7:30pm

Torah Mantle installation ceremony during the Simhat Torah service. This is an opportunity for our congregation to connect with a particular Israeli killed on Simhat Torah, while connecting to the Jewish People all over the world who are hosting similar commemorations.

- Communal Commemoration

Date: Sunday, October 27th

Time: 4:00pm-6:00pm

Location: Nassau County Museum of Art - One Museum Dr, Roslyn, 11576

The Nassau County Jewish community is sponsoring a communal commemoration. Organized by clergy/lay leaders and spearheaded by the Sid Jacobson JCC. Our community will come together with strength and hope.

“BRING THEM HOME!”

